NSU-COM’s Center for Interprofessional Education and Practice is now accepting applications for its new Interprofessional Leadership Program.

This exciting opportunity is open to all dual-degree seeking students who will be enhancing their professional degree with a Master of Public Health.

Program focus on community-oriented care, cultural competency, and team-based skills for a changing health care system in the 21st century.

For further information about the program or to obtain an application, please contact:

Kimberly Valenti
(954) 262-1650
kimberly.valenti@nova.edu

Earn certificates in both Interprofessional Education and Interprofessional Leadership.

Included in the program are:
- monthly journal clubs
- interprofessional workshops
- opportunities to participate in national competitions
- exposure at national conferences
- publication possibilities

You’re invited to be a leader for the next generation of health care professionals!