Google Scholar allows you to search a wide variety of sources for scholarly literature including: articles, theses, books, abstracts and court opinions. Search Google Scholar through the library Web site to gain access to more full text articles.

- Search for research by title, author or keywords.
- Click the “Cited by” link to see who has cited an article you have written or an article you are interested in.
- Use the “Find It! @ NSU” link to see if the NSU libraries have access to the resource.
- Click on “Cite” to import the citation information to Endnote.

To Access Google Scholar:
1. Go to http://www.nova.edu/library/main/
2. Click on the Google Scholar tab
3. Type your search terms into the box
4. Click search

If you have any questions, contact Michelle Keba at mkeba@nova.edu or the Alvin Sherman Library Reference Desk at http://www.nova.edu/library/help/askalib.html